Welcome to FuMPFest 2021!

We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Demento back as our guest of honor to help celebrate 50 years of The Dr. Demento Show! We've got a great lineup for you this weekend, including Dr. Demento's Festival of Dementia, performances by some amazing artists, The Logan Awards, and, of course, Dumb Parody Ideas. Be sure to grab a Bingo card and follow along with the ridiculousness. And please wear a mask. We plan to have fun, but we need to keep everyone safe.

Guest of Honor: Dr. Demento

Dr. Demento has been celebrating ‘mad music and crazy comedy’ on the airwaves playing everything from Spike Jones to Frank Zappa for five decades. He is responsible for introducing the world to the Dr. Demento Show’s #1 most requested song, “Fish Heads”, and launching the career of the most successful artist in the entire history of funny music—“Weird Al” Yankovic. Throughout the years, the Doctor’s influence on pop culture has earned him induction into the National Radio Hall of Fame, a special on Comedy Central, guest appearances on Late Night with David Letterman, Larry King Live, The Simpsons, and more.

Dr. Demento is a world-renowned record collector and music historian, whose lifelong passion for music of all kinds is reflected in the weekly selections heard on the Dr. Demento Show. In addition to live appearances and performances nationwide, the Doctor lectures at educational institutions drawing on his extensive knowledge of the history of Comedy, the music of Frank Zappa, the history of punk rock, and many other topics.

Most recently, a compilation album of all-new recordings entitled Dr. Demento Covered in Punk was released on CD, vinyl and digital download. This album was the highest charting “Dr. Demento” branded release to date. Dr. Demento Covered in Punk debuted on the Billboard chart as the #1 Comedy album for two consecutive weeks and held various positions in the top 10 over the course of six months.

With interest from an entirely new generation of ‘Dementites and Dementoids’ (as his fans are affectionately known), as well as those who’ve been loyal throughout the 70s, 80s, 90s and onward, now celebrating his 50th Anniversary—the Doctor is in and more topical than ever!

Look for a new two-hour episode produced and released each week at DrDemento.com.

Guests

Bad Beth and Beyond - Nobody knows where New Orleans-based Bad Beth and Beyond came from, but she first began offending people in 2011 with her lecherous songs and refusal to play a proper guitar. Her album 2-Deep has been known to get hundreds of listeners in trouble at work.

Bill Larkin - Bill Larkin is a pianist, singer and comedy songwriter. He has performed on Comedy Central, the Edinburgh, San Francisco and Orlando Fringe Festivals. His comedy album, Knowing Your Audience, was recorded live at the Green Mill Jazz Club in Chicago. He is also an award-winning stage actor.

Carla Ulbrich - Carla Ulbrich is a comical Singer-songwriter whose songs have been heard on SiriusXM comedy radio, NPR's Weekend Edition, and, of course, Dr. Demento. Carla has released 10 CDs and has performed at The Bluebird Cafe, Birdland, The Falcon Ridge Folk Festival, and lots of Zoom. Oh, and she was an extra in Sharknado 2.

Carrie Dahlby - Carrie Dahlby is a classically trained opera singer from the Chicago area who lends her talents to many of the other FuMP artists for their own music. Carrie has released three studio albums and is best known for her songs about being a parent. In 2019 Carrie enjoyed her first "Music Guest of Honor" status at Capricon.

Ian Lockwood - Ian Lockwood is a Brooklyn-based comedian and musician. He is the co-host of Hot Teens at the Brooklyn Comedy Collective and has had recurring appearances on the podcast Earwolf Presents. Ian's second studio EP, Your Dad, drops this Fall, and includes five tracks in the comedy-pop style he is known for.

Content Guidelines for Parents

Content is clean and just fine for the young'uns.

Generally clean but may contain some adult topics, double entendres, or some mild profanity.

Expect some profanity here but not an excessive amount.

No holds barred. Lots of $#%^&@! profanity!

Totally insane! Not suitable for anyone.

ESCAPE from VAULT DISNEY!

The Walt Disney Company has created some of the greatest, most acclaimed works of art in the history of cinema.

And also, unfathomable amounts of absolute garbage.

Disney+ is loaded with both.

Join YouTube personality / FuMP artist / Logan Award nominee Tony Goldmark and a rotating series of guests (including such current and former FuMPeST performers as the great Luke Ski, TV's Kyle, Lindzilla, Shoebox of Worm Quartet and more!) for "ESCAPE FROM VAULT DISNEY", a weekly podcast all about Disney+. Each week, the almighty randomizer picks a movie, TV episode or series of shorts for Tony and his guests to dissect for your amusement, and determine once and for all if whatever-it-is is a "Disney Plus" or a "Disney Minus!"

Available to stream and download on:

Guests

Insane Ian - Insane Ian is a comedy-musician from Chicago with a penchant for video games and a strange Spider-Man fetish. Recently knighted as a “comedy music god” by legendary radio personality Dr. Demento, Ian has made a name for himself with his quick wit and video game related song parodies.

Nuclear Bubble Wrap - Nuclear Bubble Wrap is a psychedelic/alternative rock band from Nashville, TN. Their music is known for containing lush, multi-layered psychedelic arrangements, with catchy melodies and witty lyrics. They’re known for their sense of humor and tendency to lean towards nerdy references and subject matter.

Ross Childs - Ross Childs has been improvising, singing, and performing for the better part of a decade. He has studied at iO, The Annoyance, and The Second City. He released his debut album Kazoology in 2018. He’s a founding member of the sketch comedy team, “Waffle Junkies”, as well as the improv team “Flynn Tin Tin.”

Steve Goodie - Steve Goodie is a comedian, singer, songwriter, and record producer from Nashville who penned Nina Yankovic’s favorite parody, “Dumbledore,” a parody of her father’s original song “Hardware Store.” Steve has had numerous hit songs on The Dr. Demento Show and made the year end Funny 25 twice in 2017.

Sulu - Susan “Sulu” Dubow began her demented career listening to the Dr. Demento Show in the mid 70’s. Her songs “I Love your Toes” and “Chocolate Toenails” made it to the top of the Top Ten. She also appears as a guest vocalist on “High School Gym” and “I Gotta Get a Fake ID” by Barnes and Barnes.

Guests

The Gothsicles

The Gothsicles are an industrial comedy band with a penchant for writing songs about video games. Although their latest album turns their attention to animals with tracks like “Rock the Quokka” and “Stag Beetle Professional Wrestling.”

the great Luke Ski

At Dragon*Con 2004, Dr. Demento declared “the great Luke Ski” to be his radio program’s Most Requested Artist of the 21st Century. Since then, Luke has held onto that title by having songs on the show’s year-end Funny 25 countdown for 18 years in a row, including five at #1.

Worm Quartet

Worm Quartet is a one-man band from Rochester, NY known for spewing hyperspeed lyrical lunacy over catchy synthesized punky music-type stuff whilst prancing and sweating all over the damned place. They had the #1 song of the year on the Dr. Demento show in 2004 and then again with Devo Spice in 2006, and won a Logan Award in 2011.

Official Merchandise

Be sure to visit Table 27 to pick up the latest merchandise from FuMPFest—such as our 2021 t-shirt—as well as merchandise from each of our guests. And don’t forget to stop at Dr. Demento’s table to pick up the latest Dr. Demento merchandise and releases from Demented Punk Records.
